My Superior Court case today is taking a while, so ADA Desroches wants me there tomorrow (Wednesday) by 9am. Besides that, I have nothing else scheduled, so I should not have a problem being there for the Washington case. If you don't see me in district court and need me, I'll be in/by Courtroom 7.

Thanks, Sonja. I saw counsel for Washington today, and he didn't give me any indication. Wish I could be more helpful. Talk to you tomorrow.

Tony-

OK, so yesterday evening I received an email from an ADA in Fall River inquiring about my availability for today (4/5/11), even if it meant me not getting there until later this afternoon. I informed him that I have a Springfield Superior case today and need to be there at 11:30, so I think it would be really unlikely that I could make it there. I believe that the ADA is going to try to get the Fall River case continued, but in the off chance that it is forced to go forward and I can't make it today, he may try to get me there tomorrow morning. If he requests this, I will insist that I need to go on the stand 1st in the morning so I can get back early (hopefully by 11:30 or 12) to be available to you. As I mentioned, I'm anticipating that the case will not go today as the court will have to make a decision as to which case(s) are going before I know when I'll be done in Springfield, but I wanted to give you a heads up. I will let you know when/if I hear anything about being needed tomorrow. If you do not hear from me, then assume that I will be available to you at whatever time you need me. However things work out, I'll make sure that I can be in Springfield sometime in the morning/early afternoon for your case. Thanks.

Hi Tony-

I just wanted to let you know that my case in Pittsfield scheduled for April 6th has been taken off the trial list, so I will not have any problems being available for your case. I realize that it is an older case, so maybe it will actually go this time??? Thanks.

Hey, Sonja. Regrettably, I don't have any new information to report. However, as I mentioned before, because counsel isn't the most vigilant and, also, I believe [REDACTED] had a serious Worcester case that should have come to disposition by now, he might look to plead to something concurrent. In any event, I'll make sure that we work around your schedule; in the event of a trial, I'll report to the court that you have a commitment and we'll be sure to work it out. Sorry I can't give you more concrete info, but I'm pretty sure we'll be ok. Thanks again. Let me know if there's anything else I can do.

Hi Tony-

I'm wondering if there have been any changes in the [REDACTED] case scheduled for trial on April 6th? I'm curious as I have previously been summonsed to a case in Pittsfield that day and I told the ADA there that I would try to find out. The tricky part is that I also have a doctor's appt. at 4:15 in Northampton that day. Originally I had planned on being in Pittsfield early, and if the case went, the ADA was going to make sure he got me on before lunch to make sure I got back in time. I could ask him if he could make sure I went first, and then head back to Springfield to testify for you if needed. Even if I couldn't get on the stand until after lunch (up to about 3pm) in Springfield, I should still be able to make it back to Northampton for my appointment. Any information you could provide would be greatly appreciated. Thanks.
